Retail Merchants to Meet.

A meeting of the Retail Merchants' association will be held at the Board of Trade rooms today (Friday) at 10 o'clock. There will be the election of officers, the consideration of holding another January day and other business of importance.

Lincoln Memorial University.

Lincoln Memorial University grew out of a great interest which Abraham Lincoln expressed in the people of Cumberland Gap, Tennessee, to General O. O. Howard, who reports how almost the last words of Mr. Lincoln spoke to him were these: "He wanted me to understand them and appreciate their worth." This direction given to General Howard led at last to the founding of the university, and prayer had a large place in the initial work. This was in the very beginning of the present century.

The university owns about 700 acres of land, and quite a number of buildings devoted to the various needs of the institution. Its work is of course, almost wholly for the mountain youth of that region to teach them the best methods of farming and mechanical arts and provide them with normal and academic training, as needed, the higher branches. It began with 200 students and now enrolls nearly 700. The conduct of the work is a model of economy and everything possible is done to place the facilities of the place within reach of the poorest. Things are reduced to such a fine point that $17.50 pays a student's tuition and room rent for three months and his board for one month. A fair proportion of this is paid by the service of the students. As President Hubbell says, "We don't like to charge the poor a fee for an education. These mountain folk are full of pride, and they don't like to be given things for nothing. We want to do it so that they can help themselves may get the education."

NEW YEAR'S EDITIONS.

The Midwinter Los Angeles Times.
The midwinter number of the Los Angeles Times issued on Jan. 1st exceeds all previous efforts with its two newspaper sections and five magazine parts. By reason of its range of subjects, wealth of information, illustrations and topographical perfection, and filled as it is with the big news of the year, it is the most interesting and most instructive manner. The issue is not only a decided credit to the paper that produced it but to that part of the country which it so ably represents. It contains 12 pages.
The Evansville, Ind., Courier.
With its usual enterprise, the Evansville, Ind., Courier presents an interesting edition published on the first day of the year. It shows in pictures and story in this 100-page New Year's issue what has happened in the way of development in that city during the past year and what is now under way. The edition includes a section of drawings in color and a most attractive rotogravure section of the striking points of Evansville. That community certainly has reason to be proud of such a newspaper.

"FLORA BELLA" AT THE DAVIS TONIGHT
At the Davis Theatre John Cort Will Present Tonight His Biggest Musical Success, "Flora Bella."

Here is something really refreshing and appealing to the eye, and quite magnetic. In fact Flora Bella is an offering that stands out as much above the average musical comedy of recent times. The libretto is by Felix Doermann, revised and adapted by Cosmo Hamilton and Dorothy Donnelly, while the lyrics are by Percy Waxman and the score by Charles G. Gulliver, composer of The Lilac Domino, and Milton Schwarzwald. Surprising as it may seem the story is neither superfluous nor so pure as to be an affront to the ears. It has a genuine, unacknowledged situation. The characters are people and not walking dummies. The comedy is plausible and the dialogue funny. What is still more astonishing, the lyrics assure you they were written by a man who had been to school, and do not produce in the listener the illusion of a bad channel crossing. Then it has one of the most sparkling and lively scores, musically and not over-orchestrated. Then again, Flora Bella is charmingly mounted.
The result is a wholesome departure from the deadly routine of ordinary musical comedy business and a spectacle that precedes the spectator in favor of the play as soon as the first curtain rises. The story is a comedy with a cabaret singer, an idol of Patagonia, who for a year, without her former identity being known in her new surroundings, has been married to Prince Nicholas Demidoff, of the Russian nobility. Her life has been irreproachable, but the two have made the mistake of not understanding the real desires of the other. She makes her husband fall desperately in love with her, eventually, by returning to her former cabaret life and posing as her own twin sister.
The cast of principals will include: Eleanor Henrich, Leach, Lay, Leonard, Edith Mason, Lynn Pratt, Guy J. Samuels, Julian Rubell, Ben Grinnell and Jack Bell.
Prices 25, cents to $1.50. Don't miss this show.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

An Entire Change of Show Today—Everything New.
The Gus Rapier Musical Comedy company will present an entirely new show today and tomorrow different from anything they have put on during

NORWICH TOWN

Special Meetings at First Church Well Attended—E. U. G. Baker Again Employed at Backus Hospital.

The Schaeffer Memorial a leaflet issued by the Schaeffer Training school in Cleveland, Ohio, has been received here by friends of the school. Results accomplished are given in this issue and show the great value of this work among the more recent immigrants within the city. The graduates have this advantage that they themselves are of the nationalities among whom their work lies and so at once get a hearing and an influence in the much needed bettering of conditions.

Week of Prayer Meetings.

At the First Congregational church the meetings of the week of prayer have been well attended and much interest shown. The Congregational hand-books for 1917 were late in coming this year and were distributed at the Tuesday meeting. The last service this (Friday) evening is especially for the young people of the church.

Attended Missionary Meeting.

The ladies of the First Methodist church joined the ladies of Trinity church in a foreign missionary meeting held Thursday afternoon at Trinity church on Main street.

Return From Pittsfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. G. Baker, formerly of Bliss place, have returned to Norwich from Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. Baker is again employed at Backus hospital.

Local Jottings.

George Rathbun of Bliss place has returned from a week's stay in Hartford.
Miss Edith Vergason of Vergason avenue is spending some time in Greenville.
Mrs. May Joslin has returned to her home on Vergason avenue after several weeks' stay with friends in Providence.

Whist Friday evening, 8 o'clock, Scotland Road hall—adv.
Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ward of Huntington avenue are spending two weeks with relatives on the West Side, in the city.

At Scotland Road hall Sunday afternoon, there was a Christmas Endeavor service and a session of the Sunday school.
Mrs. Nellie Boehler of Washington Heights, New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Stott of Orono, Maine.

TO VOTE ON WOOD'S LEAK RESOLUTION TODAY
Democratic Members of House Rules Committee Vote for Unfavorable Report.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Unless republicans develop unexpected opposition to the adoption of an adverse report by the rules committee on the Wood "leak" investigation resolution, the very rumors that money was spoken in the stock market on advance information about President Wilson's peace note probably will end tomorrow in the house. Two hours' debate will precede a vote on the report.
Democratic members of the rules committee voted today, over the vigorous protest of the republicans, to support unfavorably the Wood resolution which would provide specifically for an inquiry by a special committee into charges made by Thomas W. Lawson that there was a "leak" in advance of the peace note. The majority also decided to bring up for a final vote another Wood resolution for a general investigation of "leak" allegations or one by Representative Campbell of Kansas, designed to embarrass the stock market.

The first part of the week and there will also be few pictures. The special five reel feature will be Jackie Saunders in Reaping the Whirlwind, a thrilling five reel political drama with comedy that has been accomplished in the way of development in that city during the past year and what is now under way. The edition includes a section of drawings in color and a most attractive rotogravure section of the striking points of Evansville. That community certainly has reason to be proud of such a newspaper.

BREED THEATRE.

Pauline Frederick in "The Woman in the Case" Feature For Today and Saturday—Four Shows. Saturday, 7:30, 9 and 11:30 p. m.
Today and Saturday the Breed will present Pauline Frederick in a thrilling picture of Clyde Fitch's dramatic triumph, "The Woman in the Case." Although universally conceded to be the screen's foremost emotional artist, Miss Frederick reaches dramatic heights in this immortal play that qualify her as one of the greatest actresses of all time.
It is a glowing tribute to the genius of this artist that she makes the central character of the tense play, Margaret, one of the most appealing and lovable women that have ever appeared on the screen. In the role of the self-sacrificing wife who pits herself against the woman in the struggle to save her husband from the charge of murder, she plays with amazing fidelity and dramatic strength.
The Pathe Weekly and a very funny cartoon of Mut and Jeff completes the bill for today and Saturday. Four shows Saturday, 1:30, 3, 4, and 8:30.
"The Great Secret," with Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the stellar roles will be shown at the Breed Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Bushman is seen not only as a romantic hero, but also in a comedy part. This is a new departure for Mr. Bushman and one with amazing results. He shows himself capable of comedy of a kind that blends finely with his heroic role. . . . baV tscwv—his heroic role. . . . so the person who views this wonderful serial doesn't get filled up with romance. There is fun in it—fun enough to lighten up the story—fun that is wholesome and clean cut. The Great Secret is in fifteen cases. T. J. McCall, Athens, O. writes: "We used Foley's Honey and Tar in our home for several years and find it almost invaluable for the cure of coughs and colds, and especially for group with our children."

Different Kinds of Coughs.
Bad colds lead to different kinds of coughs. There is a "dry cough," a "winter cough," a gripe cough, a phlegmy cough, a whooping cough, of course, the racking, painful cough to raise choking phlegm. Foley's Honey and Tar gives quick relief in all cases. T. J. McCall, Athens, O. writes: "We used Foley's Honey and Tar in our home for several years and find it almost invaluable for the cure of coughs and colds, and especially for group with our children."

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musteroles

So many sufferers have found relief in Musteroles that you ought to buy a small jar and try it.
Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. Musteroles route the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

Musteroles is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the mussy, old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Musteroles is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

POETRY

THE CULT OF THE GUEST ROOM.
Before the guest arrives, the perfect hostess takes a Correspondence Course in Hospitality; inspects her guest room, and as a result, thus:

I've remembered, I've remembered
The new rug, the new light,
The towel cross-stitched in design,
Of navy blue and red.
It always seems so much too small,
The "guest towel" or "day"
Perhaps that's why the modern guest
Won't make a longer stay.

I've remembered, I've remembered
The nosegay, the gift and light,
The reading-lamp with cretione shade
That throws a gleam of light,
The "end words" of a day's luncheon,
And by the
